Subject: Capital Press query re: What's Up Stream

Hi Folks:

I know you are all out of the office, but wanted you to be aware that Mark fielded a call from the Capital Press asking what's happening relative to "taking down" of What's Upstream website, billboards, ads, Face Book page.

Mark and I wanted you to be aware and to discuss a possible response. Last I heard we understood from the Swinomish that the billboards were coming down (or were already down) and that the website was coming down as well. But, I'm not sure I'm current on the latest conversations. Let us know if there is someone we should call to check on things.

Dennis, perhaps we can discuss this first thing tomorrow when you're in briefly?

Thanks all.
